S-51 GOES DOWN IN ATLANTIC AFTER COLLISION WITH LINER

Meager Radio Messages State Three Members of Crew Rescued; Steamer in Crash Silent
as to Cause of Catastrophe

PROVIDENCE (R. I.) Sept. 25.—The submarine S-51 was sunk twenty miles east of Block Island tonight after collision with the steamship City of Rome. It is reported that thirty-seven men of the submarine's crew were drowned. Three of the crew were picked up by the City of Rome, which sent a radio message to the submarine base at New London, telling of the accident. Lieut. R. H. Dobson was the commanding officer. Lieut. G. Bannerman and Lieut. H. M. Pino were also on the submarine's complement. The S-51 was of the first line of that class of ships in the Navy. She was attached to the patrol force operating in the Atlantic under the flagship U.S.S. Camden, and was a member of Division No. 2 stationed at New London.

GENEVA, Sept. 25.—With negotiations about to be inaugurated between the Allies and Germany for a security pact, the Assembly of the League of Nations today gave special attention to a friendly French gesture toward Germany, conveyed in the words of M. De Jouvenel, former Minister of Education, that it was the hope of all that the Germans soon would be co-operating in the councils of the League.

This is but one of the many phases of harmony and conciliation falling from the lips of statesmen during the great discussion of disarmament and arbitration. Speaker after speaker arose to laud the program of world regeneration through arbitration and security pacts and the reduction of armaments which the Assembly adopted in the form of concrete resolutions.

PROGRAM OUTLINED
The program provides, new of all, for preparation by the Council of an international disarmament conference, the hopes for which everybody admits depend almost entirely upon the forthcoming security pacts with Germany.

M. De Jouvenel made his amiable reference to Germany while (Continued on Page 2, Column 4)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—The Franco-American debt-funding conference is at a standstill for twenty-four hours, perhaps for forty-eight hours, while M. Caillaux and his delegation seek to draft a new offer for settlement which will come somewhere near approaching the demands of the United States government, which were embraced in the aide memoire handed to the Finance Minister by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon at noon.

In rejecting the original French proposals of Thursday as "impossible as a basis of discussion," the American committee also prepared a written statement for M. Caillaux's mission, outlining its viewpoint on the primary principles which must govern a settlement, recalling the general terms of the Mellon-Baldwin agreement for the funding of the British debt, which the administration had decided must serve as a broad governing line, and also putting forward certain suggestions regarding France's financial situation as an argument against the claims of that country's incapacity of payment which were embraced in the Finance Minister's original offer.

PN-9 Planes Rejected in New Nonstop Flight Plan;
Capt. Moses Relieved of Pacific Command

SAN DIEGO, Sept. 25.—The possibility of sweeping changes in plans for the Navy's next attempt to make a nonstop flight to Hawaii and complete reorganization of the commissioned personnel and flying equipment of the aircraft squadrons, battle fleet, will become a reality within the next ninety days and will involve the transfer of Capt. Stanford E. Moses.

Capt. Moses will be relieved of command of the Navy's air forces in the Pacific by Capt. Joseph M. Reeves, now on duty at the Bureau of Aeronautics. It is understood that Capt. Moses, who is intensely interested in aviation, will be assigned to Pensacola to take up the aviation observer course. His transfer is said to be no reflection of his conduct of the unsuccessful flight across the Pacific.

Commander John Towers, naval airman and former naval attaché at the American Embassy at London, is to return to San Diego as senior aide to Capt. Reeves.

According to Commander Karl Smith, engineering officer of the aircraft squadrons, battle fleet, the PN-9 seaplanes will not be given another opportunity to fly to Honolulu. In the opinion of this experienced officer, the recent performance of the PN-9's revealed that they are not suitable for the accomplishment of the 2500-mile flight. These ships will be brought to San Diego, assigned to a utility squadron and given prosaic duty.

The first shipment of new high-speed Curtiss and Boeing pursuit planes that are to replace the Voights is expected to arrive at

Russian Labor Delegates Quit Tokio in Hurry

TOKIO, Sept. 25.—Four visiting labor delegates from Moscow, here on an invitation from the radical wing of the labor federation, intending to stay a fortnight consulting labor leaders and making speeches, are leaving today after four days because they are constantly surrounded by police, who arrest every Japanese they consult.

The soviet envoy protested to the foreign office against the undue police activities, without obtaining satisfaction. The press is jibing the Russian laborites, who traveled in a first class train and are living in the suite in the Imperial Hotel recently occupied by a Siamese Prince.

COOLIDGE ACTS IN SHIP ROW

Critical Affairs of Fleet Corporation Cause President to Seek Settlement

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Shipping Board affairs have reached a critical point with the question of whether Leigh C. Palmer will be retained as president of the Fleet Corporation.

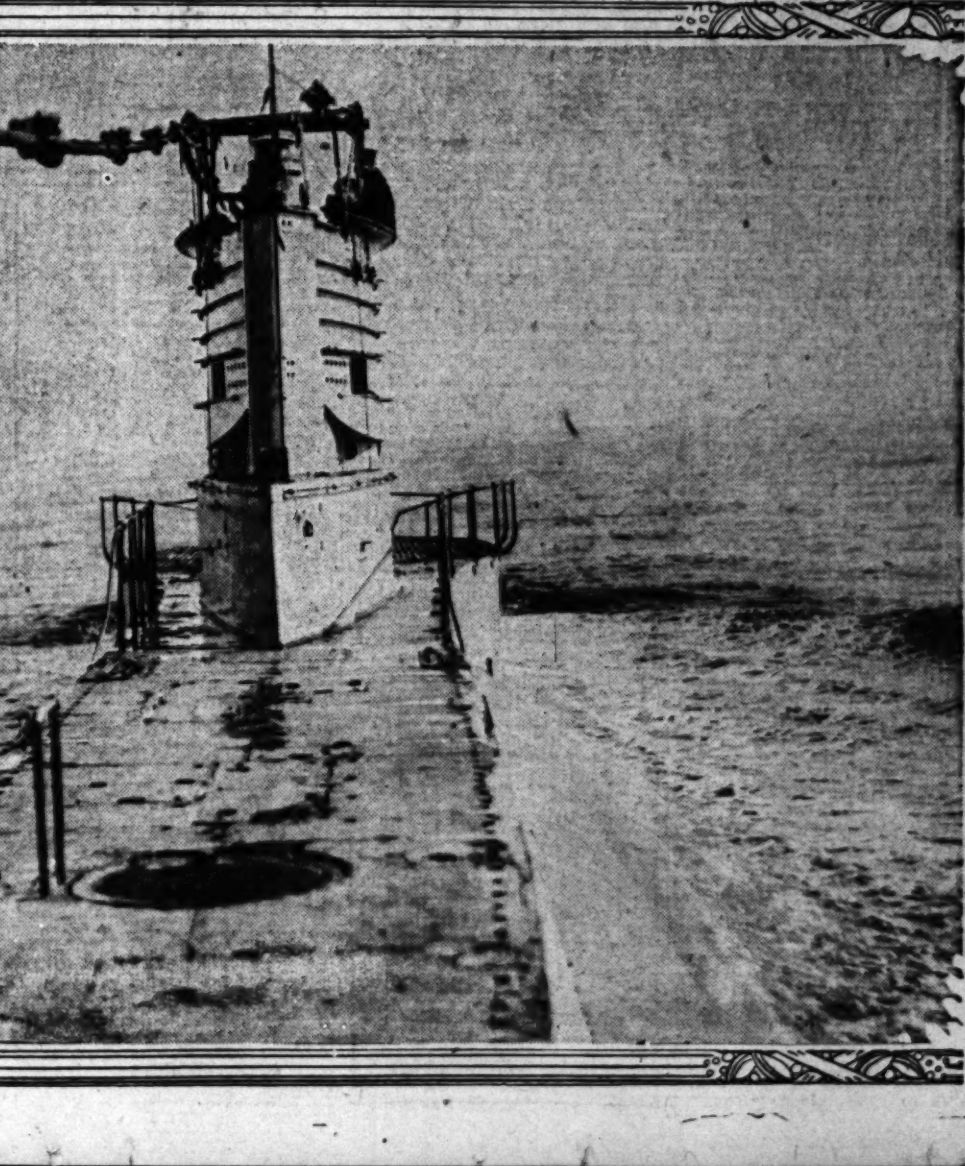

The long existing disagreements between Mr. Palmer and a majority of the board have developed to the degree that President Coolidge has taken a hand in the situation and indications are that a solution of the problem will be attempted shortly.

The board, which has had numerous disagreements among its own members, has found itself continually at odds with Mr. Palmer on policies of administration. These have involved terms for sales of ships and lines, the number of ships which should be kept in operation, and the relative merits of expanding operations at the expense of economy.

In the background has stood an apparent feeling of some commissioners that in delegating powers to the Fleet Corporation the board had in effect abdicated functions conferred upon it by law.

Indicating his direct interest, President Coolidge today summoned Commissioners Plummer and Hill to the White House. Previously he had discussed the situation with Chairman O'Connor of the board. On his behalf it was later stated that the Chief Executive had reached no conclusions, but was concerned in the administration of $250,000,000 govern-

DOUGLAS AND MARY TO MAKE PICTURE ABROAD

By Grace Kingsley

As soon as ever spring brightens the earth once more, Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford will start globe-trotting, and what is more, they will probably make a picture abroad, according to the statement of Miss Pickford, made yesterday. She was up at her home where, not to mention talking to detectives about the attempted robbery on Thursday night, she was a fairly busy young lady.

"We want to go to Seville, Spain, during Lent for the annual Lenten ceremonies," said Miss Pickford. "During that week all the ancient Catholic ceremonies are observed, and everybody gives up his automobile or carriage and rides on a donkey! There are very many long processions and many impressive ceremonies. The Duke of Alba lives there and on his estate all the ancient ceremonials are strictly observed."

Miss Pickford announced that it was likely that she and Douglas will make a picture either in France or Italy. This not only will give a release for next September, but will be a means, thinks Miss Pickford, of cementing the friendship between Europe and this country in regard to film making. It is possible that the two famous ones may both appear in the picture.

"Europe is complaining bitterly that they have no outlet for their films," she also claims that the producers are ruining the simple standards of living of the foreigners, making for extravagance. I think if more American pictures are produced abroad it will help to heal the breach."

The famous couple will travel through Switzerland, Spain, England and Italy and will then proceed to the Orient, according to Miss Pickford.

When we left this brilliant little artist, having ridden down to the studio with her from her home, she was offering to take care of the baby of one of the studio women workers whose sister's house was burned down, while the woman went out to comfort said sister!

Mabel Normand in Tour

Mabel Normand is going to see America first. That is, she is going to see and be seen from coast to coast of our fair land before New York gets a peep at her. We mean professionally, of course. "The Little Mouse" is going to be sent on tour, with Miss Normand starring, and Los Angeles audiences will have a chance to welcome her in the play before ever the biased New York critics get a chance to tell what, if anything, is wrong with the play.

A. H. Woods, according to information just received, has booked Miss Normand and "The Little Mouse" on a route that will take her across the country. She will not play Chicago, however, but, starting at Brooklyn, will play Philadelphia, Baltimore, Providence and thence points west.

Hal Cooley Busy

Any time that Hal Cooley finds his act palling on him all he has to do is to go out and tell somebody about the real act he is selling, and what he makes a sale.

Despite that Cooley has been working steadily in Fox's "Married Life of Helen and Warren" series, he has managed to close deals lately with Raymond Griffith involving the exchange of some Beverly Hills acreage for about $25,000; with Douglas LaClerq, for property amounting to about the same sum, and recently he closed a transaction with Fred Nible whereby Nible bought a plot of property from Cooley valued at something like $25,000.

New Show to Open Tomorrow at Majestic

With the initial offering in Los Angeles of the effervescent farce comedy, "What's Your Wife Doing?" tomorrow afternoon, the Majestic Theater will return to its cool-weather practice of offering Sunday matinees.

During the summer months the Majestic stock players had the freedom of the sea on Sunday afternoon, but from now on Edward Everett Horton and his supporting players will do their frolicking on the boards of the Majestic stage on Sunday afternoons.

Horton will be seen in the Emil Nytray-Herbert Hall Winslow farce as Jerry Warner, a ner-do-well young clubman with Ruth Renick, Majestic leading lady, as his fiancée-elect. Barbara Brown returns to the Majestic ranks in this new farce comedy as a flippant young matron, whose quest of a divorce is the cause of all the fun.

Other important roles are in the hands of Franklin Pangborn, Herbert Bache, William H. Stephens, John Graham, Henry Hall, Parks Jones, Norman Feusler, Forrest Seabury and Edward B. Jacobs.

A Leslie Pearce, who staged the current attraction, "The Sap," is also producing "What's Your Wife Doing?" for Michael Corcoran. "The Sap" will be seen for the last two times this afternoon and evening.

Perilous Scene Filmed During Chaplin Picture

A scene lasting five seconds, for which five days of the most careful preparation were necessary, to say nothing of weeks of search required to find a suitable location to stage the spectacle!

Such is the thrilling avalanche episode that has excited the admiration and awe of thousands who have seen "The Gold Rush." Charlie Chaplin's expansive comedy-drama of the Klondike, at Grauman's Egyptian Theater.

In the frozen reaches of Alaska were hundreds of locations where it was possible to produce a gigantic snowfall with very little mechanical effort. But to engineer such a spectacle with any degree of safety to the cameraman and the players was altogether a different problem.

Chaplin's location men first reported that they were unable to locate any place where the risk of engulfing the operators was not prohibitive, but the comedian insisted that the scene be made in picture and success finally rewarded their efforts.

AITKEN GETS OVATION AT BIRTHDAY SHOW

Anniversaries—particularly when they reach the half-century mark—are always occasions. So it was that many friends, both professional and otherwise, of Spottiswoode Aitken attended en masse the performance of "Don't Change" last evening when the fiftieth anniversary of Mr. Aitken's life as an actor was celebrated at the Beverly Theater in Beverly Hills.

The ovation which greeted his entrance must have been satisfying to a man who, after many years, comes back to the stage for one evening's performance. A wealth of friendship for the elderly actor was evidenced everywhere.

The play itself was a small, melodramatic edition of Cinderella. All it seemed to need was a musical refrain to say "Aha," at intervals, to bring back memories of the days when plays were played and heroines abused and very, very good.

However, it was not the spirit of the evening to be critical. Mr. Aitken was not attempting to produce a great bit of drama, and the audience was not interested in picking small flaws in the production. The play was just the motive power of an anniversary party at which Mr. Aitken played a gorgeous old sea captain, host to innumerable picture and stage personages who came to the play. Besides Spottiswoode Aitken as Uncle Nat the cast included Ralph Wordley, Blanche Ross, Frank Hubert, Joan D'Arcy, Grace Peters and Tom Shirley.

Cast to Meet First-Nighters at Criterion

The importance of the western premiere tonight of the film version of Frank Bacon's sensational stage success, "Lightnin'," has been increased considerably by the announcement that the members of the cast will be the guests at the Criterion and will be introduced to the first-nighters.

There will be Jay Hunt, the worthy successor to the late Frank Bacon in the role of Lightnin' Bill; Ethel Clayton, Edythe Chapman, Madge Bellamy, Wallace MacDonald, James Marcus, Brandon Hurst and Richard Travers. A special invitation has been issued to Lloyd Bacon, son of the man who wrote and created "Lightnin'," to be a guest at the opening.

The newly established policy of opening the theater at the regular time for those who cannot attend the premiere and continuing throughout the day will be followed. The festivities will take place at 8 o'clock in the evening.

Jack Cunningham, now editorial director for Metropolitan Productions, has completed the script on "The Winning of Barbara Warren," Harold Bell Wright's story which Sol Lesser will produce for United Artists. Cunningham was engaged for this adaptation and scenario before his recent appointment by William Bisset.

PN-9 Fliers Given Great Ovation on Arrival at San Francisco

Tunney, New York heavyweight, knocked out Bayley M. Madden, a scheduled round bout tonight.

The and came after a 15-minute fight, when Tunney, a left jab, crushed Madden's jaw. Toppling on his back, Madden was back to the count of 10.

Tunney, who weighed 186 pounds, was ready for either Wills or Gibbons.

Gibbons, manager of the fight, declared that Tunney, who had won three rounds, was unable to do in fifteen rounds.

Tunney displayed greatly improved form since his last appearance here, when he beat Harry Cooper, who had won several months ago. He showed increased power and landed on the Irishman's head at will until the final bell had placed him in the championship fight.

Tunney Gibbons, who also was knocked out by Tunney in New York, was at the ringside. Madden, who had announced that he would attempt to have Gibbons fight, but the arrangements were not materialized.

LOCAL LAUGHS

Each week The Times produces a film entitled "Local Laughs," consisting of the fifteen best jokes submitted by local people. Weekly prizes are paid of $5, $3, $2, and twelve of $1 each. A list of winners showing the film, together with prizes for submitting jokes, are given daily in a coupon in The Times. Prize-winning jokes, and names and addresses of winners, appear only on the screen. Jokes receiving honorable mention will be given a place of honor on The Times comic page each week-day, and each of these contributors will receive a souvenir of acknowledgment.

Go To Church Sunday

Why You Should Go To Church

By B. H. Pearson, FREE METHODIST MEXICAN MISSIONS

BECAUSE the sweetness of the teachings of Christ will take the grit out of the bearings and make your life run smoother.

BECAUSE the calm power of the Christ you may meet in Church will take you over the hill of doubt and difficulty.

BECAUSE the Church stands for service and sacrifice plus—service and sacrifice plus the perfect personality—Christ.

BECAUSE Christianity is the only reagent which can make possible co-operation through consent rather than co-operation through coercion in solving today's problems.

BECAUSE the Church of Jesus Christ alone can help you and I so to live that these United States shall assimilate the un-American elements which threaten the commonwealth of the Pilgrims founded.

BECAUSE Christ came back Resurrection Morning to carry us over the River of Death.

PEN POINTS

About all you can say for long engagements is that they postpone hostilities.

You never see a statue erected to a man who was afraid of the people he might say.

Wouldn't it be awful if a detective couldn't find enough clues even to hush him?

"The fapper can't hope to win a regular man." Alas! she can't even desire one.

There's nothing much wrong in a country where the most offensive word is "fat."

There doesn't seem to be a world shortage of anything this year except crises.

It is estimated that $7 per cent of the June bridegrooms are now postponing about restrictions.

Married folk usually get along all right if only one is selfish and spoiled.

The difference between law and custom is that it takes a lot of nerve to violate a custom.

The law of supply and demand doesn't seem to work in the case of sensible parents.

We are a sophisticated lot, but most of us can remember how much we felt the first time we walked at table.

If you can get into each other merely by being decent and well-mannered, it's a hick town.

If you can't enjoy these who read subtitles along with you, at least enjoy their pronunciation.

We are weak mortals and though the head condemns the tongue, the feet are secretly intrigued.

And to think that a woman who is called a good executive once was called a crowing hen.

Every once in a while you meet a man you know wouldn't play a boy if he couldn't bat.

If there is such a thing as great reading it should be a great deal when the driver in front holds on to his hand.

The dangerous foot-and-mouth disease is the one that keeps the mouth running while the feet are on the accelerator.

The good die young. Well, they grew up to be too conscious of their own mortality to let them in the head, anyway.

No office can confer more dignity than that possessed by the most est man who ever held it.

Still, despite the multiplicity of laws, it doesn't require a bit more effort to be a decent citizen.

"Magazine Explodes, Killin' Four." We didn't read the story, but we once read something in the magazine.

Perhaps the most hideous example of the perversity of human nature is waking early on Sunday morning.

THE LANCER

represent the lifetime labor of 1000 men on a farm.

WHAT'S WRONG

Neither the farmer nor the stockbroker is to blame for this twisted condition.

But when I pass this vast vacant richness of farm land; and remember the rush of New York people for the subway—

And then realize that the condition is every day becoming worse—

Then it impresses me that our political economy is woefully wrong somewhere.

WHAT'S A MILLION?

There are so many city men who have a million dollars that even the census can no longer keep track of them.

Yet reckoning money as we have always been taught to reckon it—as the visible symbol of work—then there really is no such thing as a million dollars.

In other words there are more dollars in the world than there is work to stand for those dollars.

MAGIC INCANTATION

Talk of subsidizing farmers is about as sensible and scientific a calling in an Indian medicine man to make magic incantations.

WHAT'S NEEDED

What is needed is some great financial mind to make a judicious estimate of the value of money.

Chest Leader for Business Section Named

J. A. H. Kerr, vice-president of the Security Trust and Savings Bank, was yesterday appointed chairman of the business districts division of the Community Chest.

Naming of Mr. Kerr by Benjamin F. Biedose, head of the team organization department of the Chest, fills all but one of the major posts in his department.

Mrs. Ada Edwards Laughlin was recently appointed chairman of the residential districts division, while Rex B. Goodell, collector of Internal Revenue for this district, heads the public employees division. A leader for the sub-division division, which includes the big manufacturing houses of the city, is yet to be named.

There are seven organizations in Mr. Kerr's division and "colonels" have been appointed for two of them. They are Mrs. E. P. Warner, District Four, and Mrs. Chester A. Ashley, District One.

From November 2 to 19, 14,000 volunteer workers will canvass the city and outlying districts for maintenance funds for the 155 charitable and welfare agencies uniting with the Chest. Inasmuch as there are many more agencies under the Chest banner this year, increased subscriptions are asked for by Chest officials.

No Paralysis Case Reported Through City

No new cases of infantile paralysis were reported in Los Angeles yesterday, according to an official statement issued by City Health Officer Parrish. The one case reported Wednesday is the only one reported this week to date, the records at the city health office show.

The total number of cases this month to date is fifteen, and the total number since January 1, last, is 182 cases, according to the records at the city health office.

The official total for last month was fifty-one cases and the total for last week was four cases.

STATE BODY ON PARKS SOUGHT

In any plan for the conservation of the beauties of California.

Attention also was called by Drury to the fact that there is a serious handicap in administering the present State park, in that the State Board of Supervisors, which has jurisdiction over three, one is administered by a commission of five members appointed by the Governor and the fifth is in care of the California State Redwood Park Commission.

COMMITTEE NAMED

After lengthy discussion of existing conditions and future problems to be met, it was voted to appoint those present a committee to seek the support of various organizations and to outline a definite plan to be followed. Later six additional members were added, the full committee including Clair S. Tappan, member of the Sierra Club, chairman; W. A. Brackenridge, of the Southern California Edison Company; Hugh Pomeroy, Regional Planning Director of the Los Angeles County; C. H. Cheney, member of the City Planning Commission; Dan R. Hull, landscape engineer of the National Park Service; R. F. McCallan, chairman of the County Board of Supervisors; Mrs. Robert Burdette, club woman; S. G. Mather, director of the National Park Service; H. B. Ryerson, secretary of the Conservation Commission of Southern California; Newton R. Drury, secretary of the Save the Redwoods League; Congressman John D. Fredericks; Harry Chandler, M. R. Aaron Schloss, of Berkeley; Mrs. J. C. Urquhart; Donald Dickey, of Pasadena; Edward Fletcher, of San Diego, and D. McDuffie and J. D. Grant, of San Francisco.

The committee will meet again next Monday, and will conduct a "ways and means session" with David Whitcomb, president of the Seattle Chamber of Commerce and founder of the National Parks Association of Oregon, who will be a visitor in Los Angeles on that day.

Real Estate Brokers Prove Truthfulness

Harry and A. Rouda, real estate brokers, were acquitted of charges of false advertising yesterday. They were tried in Police Judge Richardson's court on complaints of eighteen purchasers of lots on Van Dusen Creek in the Big Bear region.

The complainants stated the lots were not as beautiful as advertised, and that there were no fine specimens in the creek.

"There are fish in the creek," said the Roudas. They proved to the satisfaction of Judge Richardson that if the buyers failed to catch fish it was not the fault of the real estate men.

CHURCH SERVICES AT UNIVERSITY PLANNED

Tomorrow morning will mark the third week since the Sunday morning services of the University Methodist Church have been conducted in Bovard Auditorium of the University of Southern California, in accordance with the newly inaugurated plan to institute religious services on the university campus, since Southern California is becoming more and more a resident institution. As a prelude to the service, which will be conducted this week by Bruce Baxter, the organ of the university will be heard in a recital by Mrs. Glen E. Turner, player and composer. Two tenor solos, "Open the Gates of the Temple," and "The Living God," also will be sung Sunday morning by Joseph Waugh of Santa Monica.

No more camp fires are allowed in Palm Canyon, so the thermos bottle comes in handy.

The best health insurance is to buy from a market that cares what kind of food you eat. Chaffee Markets do—their stores are clean and their warehouses are just as immaculate. Of course their cash system and quantity buying make your dollar do its full duty.

Hunting season is open and with other manly freedom milady is learning to shoot, but she should be careful to know the game laws.

Fig-Co is made from figs and malt barley—nothing else. It is the most wholesome palatable coffee substitute you ever had, good for your stomach and your nerves. It's 35c a pound, ask your grocer.

It's time to plant pansies, if you want a profusely blooming bed when the folks come out this winter.

Wash your own dainty things. Get from Piggy Wiskly, Spartan's or Von's a bottle of Bobrick's Cloudy Ammonia. Put 3 or 4 table-spoonsful of this perfectly safe cleanser and a little soap into some warm water. Squeeze the sponge through your suds and laces, and they will come clean without rubbing.

Someone has said, "thrift depends on its fourth letter—thrift—it is up to you." So it pays the housewife to watch her buying, but the cheapest is not always the best.

Why be bothered with ants? Calpro Ant System, Bkaco 1266, will clear them from the premises.

Is your monthly check buying little pieces of paper (rent receipts) or is it buying a home? Mrs. Baird, 4811 Huntington Drive, has some darling little homes in places—with such tiny down payments, and the rest less than rent. Call Garfield 8940, and ask about them.

TWO TAKEN IN LIQUOR RAIDS

Three Stills and 2050 Gallons of Mash Confiscated; Possession Suspect Waives Extradition

Two homes were raided yesterday by the Federal prohibition agents and three stills and 2050 gallons of mash confiscated. The two occupants, Filippo Engrao and Dick Morgan, were taken into custody on charges of possession of apparatus to manufacture illicit liquor.

Engrao was arrested at 2115 West Eighty-second street, where two city-gallon stills and 2000 gallons of green mash were seized. Later the same officers arrested Morgan at 1254 Colton street and seized a ten-gallon still. Engrao was arraigned before United States Commissioner Turney and his bond set at $1000. Morgan will be prosecuted in Police Court.

BOARD ASKS FOR POLICE SECRETARY

Council Requested to Ratify Appointment of George T. Jeffers

The Board of Police Commissioners has asked the City Council in a resolution to ratify the appointment by the board of George T. Jeffers as secretary of the commission and to create by ordinance the position of secretary of the board at a salary of $300 a month.

The board's communication to the Council was unusual, as the new charter gives commissions full authority to select secretaries of these boards and the approval of the Council to the appointments.

The latest discoveries in biology, especially those of Otto Warburg of Berlin, point out very clearly that the iron of the cells performs a very important function in acting as a catalyst in uniting the oxygen to the cells. Warburg shows that no oxidation can take place except through this catalytic action of the iron. His theory explains the function of iron and solves what has been hitherto more or less a mystery of respiration.

A depleted condition of the body is often attributed to lack of iron, notwithstanding the well known fact that addition of iron to the diet, as a rule, results negatively. The true theory is not said to be that iron is needed in the body, but that the iron does not act up to its full catalytic function.

It is upon this theory that Gaylord Wilshire has developed the "Ionaco," which not only acts directly on the iron as a catalyst but also directly on electro-magnetism is itself a catalyst and induces metabolism.

The magnetic flux from "Ionaco" acts directly upon the electronic structure of the molecular iron in the system and the result is a normal oxidation, upon which perfect health and activity are so dependent.

One of the many remarkable cases which have responded to "Ionaco" treatment is that of D. J. Smith, 1214 West 8th Street, Los Angeles, Calif., Sept. 13, 1925. Arthritis and Constipation.

For ten years suffered with an anemic condition and constipation, often passing a period of eight days at a time without elimination.

I have also had arthritis in the hip and was confined to my bed for several months. Received the best of care from the doctors without any benefit.

However, fifteen treatments with the Ionaco have increased my efficiency, health and strength at least 80 per cent, and my constipated condition has entirely disappeared. Most wonderful, my hair was white and is now rapidly returning to its original black.

Mr. Smith now walks as much as he pleases and with only a slight limp. He told us he was more enthusiastic over "Ionaco" than ever, and he looked indeed a healthy and happy gentleman.

You too may be restored to health and vigor—even to the very appearance of youth and vitality—for "Ionaco" cures all ailments that have been considered incurable, that it will certainly be worth while to investigate it.

Just to the office of the Ionaco Co., Commercial Exchange Bldg., 8th and Olive, or Busch Bldg., Wilshire and Vermont, and you may receive treatments absolutely free of charge so that you may know of "Ionaco" is and what it will do for you.

When one starts early—quite early on a boy's outing and it's a long drive home, it will pay to have a good five hours to drive home from beautiful Palm Canyon, and bring a little home-grown turkey. So one must plan a satisfying, but easily digestible dinner for the late hour.

How happily the children come home from school when there's a pet waiting! Famous Pet Exchange, 711 S. Main, is a good place to get healthy animals and birds.

of Mr. Jeffers as secretary was not required. The Police Commission's resolution also said that Mr. Jeffers had been appointed secretary to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mabel C. Olin. It was said that the change of secretaries was made. Miss Olin said that she had not resigned.

Miss Olin is still performing the duties of secretary of the Police Commission, but she draws a salary as private secretary to the chief of Police. It is expected that Mr. Jeffers will not assume the position until the Council creates the position of secretary to the Board of Police Commissioners and attaches to it a salary, probably the $300 a month recommended by the Board of Police Commissioners and appropriate to the salary of the secretary of the Board of Police Commissioners.

TRAP FOR CLUB LIES PROPOSED

Friday Morninger Would Lay for Speakers

Suggests Detector's Use and Charge Per Word

Function Given in Honor of Press Women

BY MYRA NYE

A lie detector for every speaker who appears upon the platform of the Friday Morning Club this year is the suggestion of Grace Frye, made yesterday at the first affair of this large and influential club, given in the banquet hall of the clubhouse in honor of the new-paper women of the city, Mrs. O. J. Blair.

"That would be the only way to assure club editors of real news," said Mrs. Frye, whose suggestion she made was that the club, which she called pernicious, of paying speakers should be removed.

"Club women should charge the speakers for the privilege of opening their mouths after that, according to their verbosity. Three cents a word, if it is to be 1,000, 2,000, 3,000, and 5 cents for just the ordinary club address made up of 1,000,000 words," said Mrs. Frye, who was assigned the subject of the banquet.

Fire that swept through a citrus packing warehouse in Altadena Thursday was of spontaneous origin, according to the theory of Assistant County Fire Warden Thurston, who was assigned to investigate a report that the blaze was incendiary. Thurston stated there was no evidence to support this report and that he was of the opinion the fire started in a pile of hay stored in the warehouse.

ORATORS PUT IN BUSY DAY

at the Billmore at noon, a beach drive in the afternoon, a dinner given in honor of the guests by the city of Long Beach at the Virginia Hotel in the evening, and for good measure, a show to wind up a perfect day.

The orators are having the time of their young lives and are profuse in their expressions of appreciation of the courtesies being heaped upon them in Los Angeles. So enamored of the city have some members of the party become that they have resolved to prolong their visit here beyond the time set for their departure for home Monday morning.

The Rotary Club the guests were welcomed by John Gage, the president, in behalf of the Rotarians. In extending the greetings, Mr. Gage called attention to the fact that the movement for the study of constitutional government which brought these young orators to Los Angeles, had its inception in this city, that it has extended to the entire United States and Mexico, but that next year it is contemplated to conduct oratorical contests dealing with constitutional government in many of the European countries.

"This is a movement which, in my judgment, will do more to improve international relations than anything else that has ever been undertaken," by Mr. Gage.

Mr. Gage then introduced Dr. G. M. Swiggett, who has directed the Mexican contest, and who spoke briefly on that enterprise, concluding his remarks with thanks for the courtesies shown the winning orators by the Rotarians.

On the occasion of the guests, the most important step was taken toward the goal of world peace.

Commissioner Takes Step for Grand Jury Quiz

Avers Japanese Involved in Rum Ring Victimized

Convicted Mail Swindler Implicated in Case

Charging in open court that Frank Kubota, rich Japanese fishing fleet operator, and convicted defendant in the Alexander B. Stewart "million-dollar rum ring conspiracy," had been brutally victimized by straw bondsmen, United States Commissioner Turney yesterday started in motion a movement to have the Federal grand jury make an investigation of Kubota's case.

Asst. U. S. Atty. Armstrong concurred with Commissioner Turney after hearing testimony by Kubota, and a cross-examination has been conducted of Mrs. Ivy Jividen, 411 1/2 Towne avenue, one of the signers of his bond.

Kubota was surrendered after this week by Mrs. Ella Green, 1413 Santa Monica Boulevard, the second bondsman, who informed Commissioner Turney she considered the Nipponese a "poor risk," and according to Federal officials, revealed startling information about the posting of the bond.

IMPLICATES SWINDLER

Kubota took the stand yesterday before Commissioner Turney and in broken English told of paying Mrs. Jividen $450 as part payment for signing his bond of $11,000, and of signing a note for $2200 as the balance of $5500 asked of him for attorney's fees and payment of furnishing the bond.

He implicated J. D. "Jack" Austin, mail swindler, who was captured recently in New York after fleeing the city when he was about to be sent to Leavenworth for four years. Mrs. Jividen and several attorneys, as those responsible for the loss of his money. Austin, he said, received $300 to get a bond for him.

Asst. U. S. Atty. Armstrong indicated the matter will be referred to the grand jury when it meets in regular session next week.

Another witness at the hearing called by Commissioner Turney yesterday was Deputy United States Marshal C. E. Rice and he testified that the Los Angeles County Assessor had appraised the bondsmen's property owned by Mrs. Jividen at Sixteenth and Hooper streets and valued by her at $40,000, at approximately $100,000.

DENIES RECEIVING MONEY

At the outset Mrs. Jividen denied ever receiving money for the Kubota bond and declared she had been induced to sign it by Austin, then a local bond broker operating in the Loeb's State Theater Building.

Kubota followed her to the stand and related that on three separate occasions he had paid her money, the amount totaling $4500. Mrs. Jividen returned to the stand and admitted receiving the money, but insisted it was in payment for her vegetable ground lease she had negotiated for Kubota and several of his friends. She also testified that Mrs. Green received $1000 from Austin for going on the stand.

Kubota is held in the Los Angeles County Jail pending a decision by the Circuit Court of Appeals on an appeal from his conviction for participation in the "rum ring" conspiracy and sentence to Leavenworth for more than five years and pay a fine of $10,000.

Judge Rules One May Employ Force to Oust Offender from Home

The right of a householder to order from his home anyone offensive to him that has no right to be there, and to use violence to enforce the order, if necessary, was upheld by Police Judge McDonald, of Venice, sitting yesterday in Police Judge Richardson's court.

Mrs. Carroll Faltis and Archie Priestman were before the court, charged with battery in connection with the ejection of Miss Jean Gardner from Mrs. Faltis's apartment.

Miss Gardner said she had heard that Mrs. Faltis, by whom she was employed as a housekeeper, had stolen a ring, and she declared she went to the house to return it. Instead, Miss Gardner testified, she went to the telephone to call police. The telephone receiver was knocked from her hand, she said, and she was ejected.

"Were you employed by Mrs. Faltis at that time?" asked the judge. She said she was not.

Then you had no right to be there, he said, and Mrs. Faltis was within her legal rights in ordering you to leave. Case dismissed.

The officers found Lewis, they said, at home at South Park avenue and Eighty-fifth street. He asked permission to put his car away before going to jail, started it suddenly, and dashed away down the street. Letts had just time to jump on the running board, but he was answered only by increased bursts of speed.

Letts fired a rear tire and missed, then fired a shot through
